About the speakers:

Dr. Patrick Goroski is a graduate of Carroll College in Helena, Montana with degrees in biology and chemistry. He received his DDS from the UCLA School of Dentistry and his periodontal certificate from the West Los Angeles Veterans Administration Medical Center. He has been a practicing periodontist on the central coast of California since 2006 and is the owner of Comprehensive Periodontics & Dental Implants. Dr. Goroski is a member of numerous dental, periodontal, laser and implant organizations. He lives in Arroyo Grande with his wife and two young daughters.

Dr. Jeff Hollister attended UC Davis undergrad with a major in Zoology. He graduated with honors from UCLA Dental School before continuing on to earn his Certificate of Periodontology and Masters in Biology at Baylor College of Dentistry. Since 2006, Dr. Hollister has been registered with the Dental Board of California as a Continuing Education Provider. Dr. Hollister was raised in San Luis Obispo where his family ancestors have lived since the 1850's. After completing dental school and specialty training, Dr. Hollister and his wife, Karen, moved back to San Luis Obispo in 1995. They have four children and he works in private practice specializing in Periodontics and dental implants.

Dr. Lynn Sayre-Carstairs is a graduate of Wellesley College with a degree in psychobiology. She graduated from Tufts School of Dental Medicine and received her periodontal certificate from the USC School of Dentistry. Dr. Sayre-Carstairs has owned Coast Periodontics and Laser Surgery for 20 years. She is active in the Central Coast Dental Society, the CDA, ADA, AAP and CSP, and has lectured for Biolase. Dr. Sayre-Carstairs is married to Greg, has three sons and five grandchildren, and lives in Arroyo Grande.

Dr. Paul Vanderheyden studied at Cal State University Northridge in cell and molecular biology. He then received his DDS at the UCLA School of Dentistry in 1984. After UCLA, he completed a 2 yr. hospital residency at the Sepulveda Veterans Administration Medical Center, and a 2 yr. periodontal residency at the West Los Angeles Veterans Administration Medical Center. He has taught at the UCLA School of Dentistry and the West Los Angeles Dental Hygiene program. He has been a member of various study clubs over the past twenty-five years and has enjoyed providing continuing education for the local dental hygiene society. Dr. Vanderheyden is currently a member of the Central Coast Dental Society, the ADA, CDA, CSP, and AAP.
